

Two capitals of Russia: Moscow and Saint Petersburg

Explore the jewels of Russian architecture, fine arts and music. We will start our tour from the heart of Russia, the Red Square in Moscow, visit the Kremlin, its spectacular Orthodox churches and the famous Armory.

Admire the outstanding collection of the Russian fine arts of the 18-19 centuries at the State Tretyakov gallery, as well as the world-known Russian avant-garde at the new "Tretyakovka" in Moscow.

Observe the Stalin's high-rises and the ultra-modern Moscow-City, walk along the famous Arbat street and discover the rich decorated stations of the Moscow subway.

Visit the famous Bolshoi theater and admire the great Russian ballet performance. Move by the speed train to Saint Petersburg and discover the Russian "Northern Palmyra".

Most European city of Russia is famous for its palaces and churches built in Russian Baroque style. We will take an unforgettable cruise along the Neva river and the numerous canals.

Visit world-famous Hermitage museum and admire the masterpieces of Leonardo, Raphael, Titian, Rubens, Rembrandt and other great world artists.

We will visit the great Imperial Palaces in Peterhof and Pushkin and will be enraptured by spectacular fountains and by the famous Amber room.
